LA CIÉNEGA

An Escape to the past legend and charm Since 1695. To wander through La Ciénega is to step into the secrets of Ecuadorian history, where legend and tradition come alive in a luxurious colonial-style estate embraced by century-old trees. Nestled in the fertile plains of Cotopaxi, surrounded by majestic volcanoes, this historical treasure of the Central Andes is a place where time seems to stand still. Here, our colonial hacienda invites you to experience the timeless beauty, history, and charm of the Ecuadorian highlands—an unforgettable journey into the past, wrapped in elegance and authenticity.

Our History

A place frozen in time, since 1695, the walls and corridors of La Ciénega have kept secrets and memories of remarkable visitors that studied the beautiful Andean geography. The past and present come together in this magical place through stories, photographs, and nature.

Rooms

seamlessly with refined décor and modern comforts to create an atmosphere of pure relaxation. Our design inspired accommodations feature stone fireplaces, grand windows, and elegant furnishings every detail crafted to ensure an unforgettable stay.

Gardens

Cobblestone paths, majestic trees, and vibrant flowers set a poetic scene, inspiring creativity. Our gardens offer a romantic, colorful atmosphere - perfect for tea, reading, or enjoying a glass of wine.
