

HACIENDA
PINSAQUI
HISTORIC - HOTEL

With more than three centuries of history, Hacienda Pinsaqui is not just a place to stay, but a setting filled with magic and legend. Within its colonial walls and century-old gardens, historic encounters, travelers' tales, and cherished memories have unfolded and still live on today. Now, tradition blends seamlessly with modern comforts to offer an experience that is both a journey into the past and an unforgettable stay in the present.

Architecture

Hacienda Pinsaquí, once a famed textile hub whose bayeta reached the world, today preserves its colonial and republican heritage under the care of the Freile family. Transformed into a destination of sustainable tourism, it invites travelers to experience history, culture, and timeless beauty.

Our Suites

We offer comfortable and inviting suites designed for a peaceful and pleasant stay. Choose from colonial-style double suites with garden views, spacious family suites with two queen beds, sofa bed, and fireplace, or cozy triple suites ideal for sharing in an atmosphere of tranquility. Each suite carries a historic charm, evoking the warmth of traditional hospitality.

Events

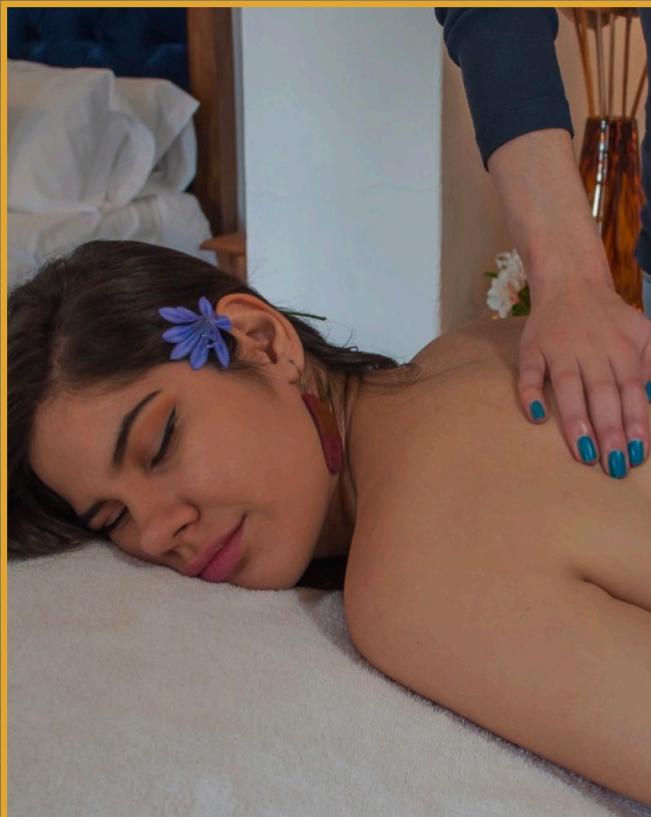

At Hacienda Pinsaqui, you will find spacious and charming venues, perfect for hosting that special event which deserves to be truly unique. With our tradition, elegance, and warmth, we turn every occasion into an unforgettable memory.

Spa

Our cozy SPA is designed for rest and renewal. Here, ancient ceramic details frame a unique wellness experience: tubs filled with decontracting mineral salts, rose essential oils, hydrating cleansing milk, and aromatherapy, all complemented by petals of native flowers from the region.

Our Gastronomy

At Hacienda Pinsaqui, our cuisine reflects both tradition and modernity. Using organic, locally sourced, and seasonal ingredients, we bring you the best of Ecuadorian gastronomy complemented by delicate inspirations from European country-style cooking—celebrating the cultural fusion that defines us.

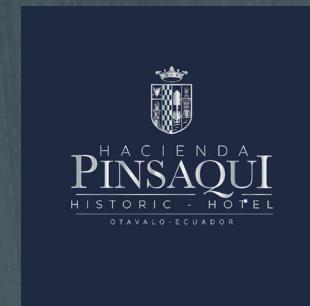

Activities

Live authentic experiences during your stay, with the chance to immerse yourself in Andean culture and nature through unique activities. Discover the secrets of traditional cuisine in hands-on cooking classes, connect with local artisans who keep our traditions alive, and learn to play ancestral instruments from the Andes. Complete your journey with exciting horseback rides along unforgettable trails and trekking adventures through magical paths, surrounded by landscapes that invite both adventure and a deep connection with Pachamama.
